

Career Research Assignment Worksheet

1. Student Name: James Gates

2. Job Description:

The UX Designer makes sure that the users are able to have a good experience when using their website by doing things like researching, getting feedback, and testing.

3. Salary:

$52,000 to $116,000

4. Working Conditions:

UX Designers usually work by themselves when they are looking at the digital products and they have to talk to their team daily and they spend most of their time at a desk on the computer.

5. Education Requirements:

You do not need a bachelor's degree, but it will be very good to get one. Getting a certificate will help getting a UX designer job as well.

6. What classes would be helpful for success in this field?
Classes that would be useful would be anything about web design.

7. Job Outlook:
There is not really any growth in this field.

8. Overall Pros and Cons:

Pros:

They can be very creative.

The job is not very stressful.

Cons:

They are always having to learn new things.

The workplace can be a bit competitive.

9. Advancement Opportunities:

You can go from a UX designer to a UX manager to a UX director.

10. Why this job may fit you?

This job may fit me because I have good knowledge of coding languages and some experience with making websites.

Works Cited

What does a UX designer do? - CareerExplorer

UX Careers 101: The Guide to User Experience Careers \(dynamapper.com\)

Learn About Being a UX Designer | Indeed.com

UX Designer Career Path | Thinkful